

DEDICATION

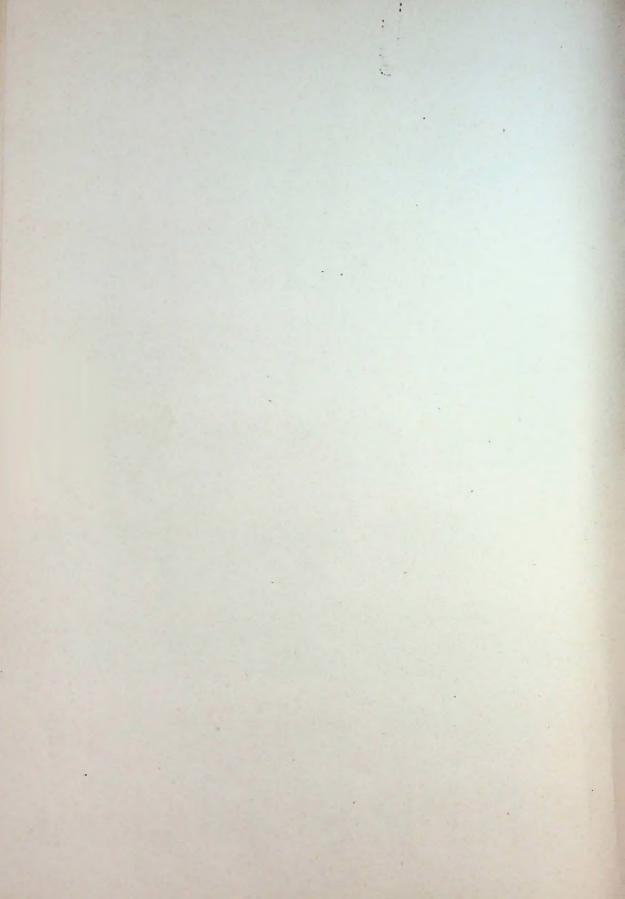

We, the Senior Class of 1947, dedicate this, the sixth Fortress, to our Fathers and Mothers who have labored without ceasing, and sacrificed much that we may finish our course at Fort Ashby High and thus be prepared to enjoy the more abundant life.

Class Prophese

As our gypsy fortune teller, Marko, gazed into the gyrsy campfire, he saw visions of 1955 and the lives of our present seniors. His eyes were dreamy when he saw Alma as head mortician at Hafer's Funeral Home. He forcasted you could find the best beauty treatment in town at Kay and Jean's Beauty Salon.

At Camp Lee, Virginia, he saw Privates Paul Twigg, Ed Davis, and Fred Wagoner reporting to Sergeant RobertLee Wetzel for K.P. Duty.

Marko advised that you tune in WWVA for the Rexrode Roundup featuring Dorothy as starsinger; and the nine o'clock "Hit-Parade" for Wendell Bohrer singing the latest hit tune.

Marko predicted that Secretary Betty Jo would be working in a Dentist's office for a tall dark haired dentist. He saw Helen Senn & Secretary to head Dietitian at Memorial Hospital.

The gypsy told of rival taxi-services in Fort Ashby and Short Gap, Shafer's Speedy Service and Douthitt Doubtful Driving.

Donald Brooke is owner of the most prosperous Dairy Farm in the Fort Ashby Region.

He saw Richard Lee Deremer running against Earle Boore for Mayor of Fort Ashby.

The fortune teller reported that the neatest, most comfortable house in Fort Ashby was kept by Mrs. Eugene Clayton.

The nation's latestsensational pianist, Melvin Woolford, will play, Gershwin's "Rhapsody in Blue."

That smart looking girl in the green suit is government worker, Helen Abe.

It seems to Violet and Evelyn that they say "pleasantly", "Number Please", at least 500 times a day, since they became telephone operators.

For a glimpse of Isabel, Marko looked into Rosenbaum's where she works behind the cosmetic counter.

That plump little housewife visioned in the campfire is Betty Lou Davis.

The Seer fortold of a glorious winning streak in Fort Ashby's Football Season. Coached by Donnie Linn, the Eagles are making football history.

Light was added to the campfire by the sparkling diamond on Imogene's left hand.

The campfire was in an uproar as Paul Davis leading his orchestra entertained the customers of Jake's Place.

The social star of Pinto, Miriam Livingood, appeared at an afternoon tea wearing a white suit with Lime colored accessories.

Betty Long is the latest word in efficiency and charm as secretary to the most outstanding lawyer in Cumberland.

The gypsy prophet hinted of wedding bells for June-those regular dates must mean something.

Harold Umstot is still an industrious worker at the Kelly. After work hours he dates that special girl friend.

One of the top-ranking baseball coaches of Mineral County is Edgell Long.

The visions of the campfire were very pleasent and promised gay futures for the Seniors of 1947.

Class History

Welcomed by Miss Etta Dunn in September 1936, Melvin Woolford, Richard Deremer, Paul Davis, Paul Twigg, Fred Wagoner, Robert Wetzel, Betty Jo Barnes, Thelma Wagoner, Dorothy Rexrode, Kathleen Anderson, Alma Adams and Helen Abe, began their quest for knowledge.

All of these have remained at Fort Ashby until now except, Helen Abe who left to attend school at Short Gap, Alma Adams who attended the second half of the first grade at Ridgeley, but returned to Fort Ashby for the second grade, and Donald Brooke who has been at Fort Ashby all the time except for three months spent at Frostburg school in the seventh grade.

These twelve were joined in the third grade by Bernard Douthitt who had attended Penn Avenue school, Cumberland for his first three grades, and Violet Bolyard who had spent her first three grades at Keyser. In the sixth grade we welcomed into our group Donald Linn from Cumberland.

In the fall of 1942 we found Miss Warnick as our home room teacher and fifteen more students added to our class. They were Paul Shafer, Wendell Bohrer, Jean Borror, Miriam Livengood, Harold Umstot, Helen Abe and Imogene Cox from Short Gap. Betty Lou Davis, Betty Long, Edward Davis, Edgell Long, Evelyn Baldwin, Isabel Anderson, Helen Senn, June Senn and Earle Boore from Pattersons Creek.

Other members who have drifted from us during our journey are: Edna Cox, Francis Isner, Theodore Brelsford, William Chaney, Lola Brelsford, Donald Combs, Roy Flannagan, Ruth Fitchit, Raymond Baine, Helen Cook, Florence Lechliter, Francis Parker, Mildred Willison, Estyl Kimble, Kenneth Kesner, Charlene Clair, Ray Pyles, Lillian Weaver, Donald Pyles, Herbert Barnes, James Seeders, George Seeders, Louise Long, Dalton Lease, Thomas Welch, Pauline Smith, Ruth Funk, David Malone, Herbert Judy, Junior Judy, Eleen Evans, John Evans, Arthur Moreland, David Moreland, Mary Malone, Dorothy Kenny, Virgie Spencer, Dorothy O'Dell, Evelyn Miller, Marvin Logsdon, Ruth Barnes and Evangeline Twigg.

We as the Seniors of 46-47 are proud to say that we are the largest Senior Class ever to graduate from Fort Ashby High School.

The Seniors of 1947 sincerely hope that they have presented a good example to the lower classmen of Fort Ashby, that our school may grow in better sportsmanship and greater desire for learning.

Kay Anderson Helen Senn

Last Will and Cestament

We, the seniors of 1947, being of sound mind, do solemnly swear this to be our last Will and Testament. To the members of Fort Ashby High we fondly bequeath the following:

Alma wills to Delores Lark her bottle of "neverfail" peroxide and her love for charcoal chewing gum.

Paul Shafer leaves his routine office and library visits to Alan Whitacre.

Betty Lou leaves her giggle to make life cheery after she is gone.

Bernard leaves his mischievous cackle to haunt Miss Pownall.

Melvin leaves his A's and musicaltalent to Harry Cumberledge.

Betty Long leaves her love of the Embassy Theater to Grace Shafer.

Donald Linn wills his tardiness and basketball ability to Jimmie Livingood.

Ed Davis would like to give his beard to his brother Jim.

Donald Brooke wills his farm talk to James Beatty Pyles.

Earle Boore leaves his talkative manner and wavy hair to Richard Pyles.

Dick Deremer wills his pipe and his way with the teachers to Vernon Shirley.

Paul Davis wills his dimples and his manner of walking to Leonard Evans.

Edgell Long gives his baseball pitching ability to Don Frankland.

Wendell Bohrer bestows his "Frankie" voice on Blair Brooke.

Paul Twigg wills his blush and chewing gum to Jimmie Davis.

Harold Umstot leaves his "snoozing" in class to Ernie Boatman.

Fred Wagoner wills his slow, witty remarks to Tommy Davis.

Bob Wetzel leaves his "funnie" books to Ernie Boatman.

Betty Jo willsher ability to stick to one boyto Betty Garland.

Violet Bolyard bequeaths herchemistry ability and a few pounds to ${\tt Mary\ Lee}$ Burger.

Evelyn Baldwin leaves her red hair to Evelyn Lease.

Thelma wills her big laugh and her ability to play basketball to Ethel Hepner.

Imagene leaves her "Encyclopedia of Acceptable Excuses after Midnight for Mom" to Jean Marker.

Jean Borror wills her singing ability to Marion Umstot.

Miriam Livingood leaves her chemistry book to the study hall at 10:00 in room #2.

June Senn leaves her steadiness to Erma Welch.

Helen Senn leavesher behaviorin typing class to Dottie Twigg.

Helen Abe wills her habitof not getting in English assignments to Shirley Alkire.

Patsy Starliper wills hermarriage license to Doris Householder.
Kay just leaves with much rejoicing.

To our teachers we leave the memories of our antics and our inability to consider anything seriously. To Mr. Judy we leave the problem of getting next year's seniors to class on time.

To the future seniors we present our home room and our capable home room teacher. To the lower classmen we leave our books, teachers, and positions in all the sports.

Helen Senn Kay Anderson

Who's Who

When Helen Abe came to us We thought her very quiet, But since she rides the Short Gap Bus Her laughter is our daily diet.

Our Alma has a graceful swing H er locks form a golden crescent; H er voice is like the breath of Spring And her talk--Well, it's incessant!

A gentle lass is the fair Isabel Who never seems in a hurry; Her quietness and sincere faith dispel The clouds that fret and worry.

Somehow we've learned to love Kathleen Her work is always well done; She has a smile that's often seen And her future will be a bright one.

Evelyn is small but full of vim Her eyes and ears are steady; When worthwhile knowledge is aswim She proves alert and ready.

When there's work to be done, we call Betty Jo Who plays, sings, or acts to befriend us; No wonder the students all love her so At games, her cheering's tremendous.

Our comedian and singer of note is Wendell Who loses his way between classes But when teachers find him, they know very well He'll be crooning to girls as he passes.

Violet is known by her soft spoken words In Chemistry class, she exceeds all; When she works, she moves with the grace of birds With a smile, she responds when you call.

There's always a breezy greeting from Earle When he may be quite sleepy and tired; Though his words pop and tumble and rumble and swirl His musical tones are admired.

We have in our midst a sweet singer named Jean Who works at high speed on assignments; With a mind alert and an intellect keen She will perfect the social refinements.

Deremer is serious at work--but at play He's a cut-up, a prankster frightful At business he's best, but his friends all say H e's an athlete and actor delightful.

Though Bernard is small, he's the busiest of boys Fun and Mischief twinkle in his bright eyes You'd never guess he could make so much noise If you judged him entirely by size.

Maxine is plump and blonde and cheery She finished her work and departed With her husband, Carl Bowman, who calls her deary And pledges his troth to remain true-hearted.

Donnie Linn is our Romeo Card Who thrills us by readings from plays He won first place as all tournament guard and will cherish athletics always.

Miriam is known by her musical drawl Which is very attractive and clever Her work is well done and she's ready at call To assist any helpful endeavor.

A diligent worker is Donald Brooke Who is busy from morn until night; He knows how to manage a team and can cook What appeals to a big appetite.

A small, dainty actress is blonde Imogene Who speaks with a soft, shy accent; She is very attractive as cheering squad queen We are sure for romance she was meant.

Betty Lou Davis knows how to serve eats When one needs her, she's always right there; She's friendly and kind to all whom she meets And she makes all decisions with care.

Edward pretends to be somewhat obtuse His books and his tests don't annoy him For he can invent any kind of ercuse When the lesson assignments grow dim.

Paul Davis is handsome and princely in bearing His musical skill on the trombone Attracts the fair sex who are always declaring, "He surely can make that thing moan."

A tall quiet blonde is Betty Long Whose smile is a constant delight; Her singing voice, though not very strong Is as sweet as a bird's song at night.

Edgell Long is our clever, dark eyed antic Who never worries or frets; He doesn't respond when girls feel romantic He turns away, smiles, and forgets.

Dorothy Rexrode is slender and shy She's glad to meet with school friends For when she is home, her work she will ply From morning till the day ends.

We always know it's Helen Senn When someone says, "Don't hurry!" For she believes there's time! It's when Folks rush and fume, there's worry.

June is happy at work or at play She's busy all the while She helps when she can, any time of the day And always comes in with a smile.

An athlete who rates is our playboy Paul Shafer A Beau Brummell with excellent poise; He's a prize at mixed parties, but we'd think him safer If he'd cultivate more homely joys.

Wherever Patsy was concerned Things always were "a cinch" Her handsome help-mate, we've just learned Is her husband, Marshall Lynch.

Paul Twigg is the quiet, easy kind Whose nature never varies; He's often late for he never can find His books which he seldom carries.

Harold's a busy man of affairs
Who doesn't find time to be sleeping;
He's often late and we don't think he cares
For the money he makes, he is keeping.

Fred Wagoner surprised us in public speaking The applause for his speech on Conant Is proof that the country will soon be seeking A farmer with skill as proponent.

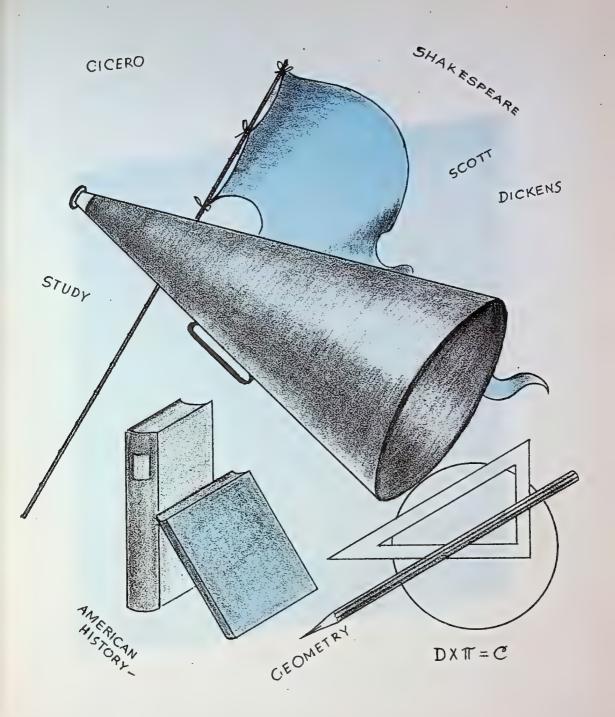

Thelma's sly smile is surely a winner She's so busy, she's never a bore; In basketball art she is not a beginner For her skill helped us pile up the score.

Our tall, slender wolf with the cunning blue eyes Proves quite active when trailing a fair maid; But when work's to be done, Bob's a bundle of sighs And prefers a cool place in the shade.

We have among us an unusual lad Whose voice and whose manners are charming He's an athlete, an actor; and we'd like to add Melvin's way with the girls is alarming.

Who is he? He comes in late every morning.

With deep anguish, he begged her to consider her answer. "If you don't marry me I'll blow my brains out," he vowed.

"Oh, would you, real-

"Oh, would you, really." she gurgled. "I wish you would do it. It would be a great joke on father, he thinks you haven't any."

"I wish to thank the pupil who left this lovely crabapple on my desk during recess." Pat-I asked you for a kiss. Alma-Well, what are you waiting for-an application blank?

Ronald-May I kiss YOU?..

May I please kiss
you...Say-are you deaf?

Betty Jo-No, are you paralyzed?

"He's so changeable. First it's his ways...... then it's his mind.......and now it's his voice "

Father-"What's the idea standing on the front porch with your boy friend?" Kay-"But, Dad, I only stayed for a second. Father-"Really? I distinctly heard the third, fourth and fifth."

"The thing I look for in a man is appearance..... the sconer the better."

Paul T.-If I knew you better, I'd kiss you.

Jean B. And if you'd his me, you'd kiss me, you'd know me better

Fred-There's only one good thing about school.

Paul T.-What's that? Fred-You can't have a vacation withoutit.

Earle-"Drinking makes you look beautiful." Imogene-"But I haven't been drinking." Earle-"I have."

F.W.-We're going to have a swell evening, Sugar. I've got three seats to the movies.

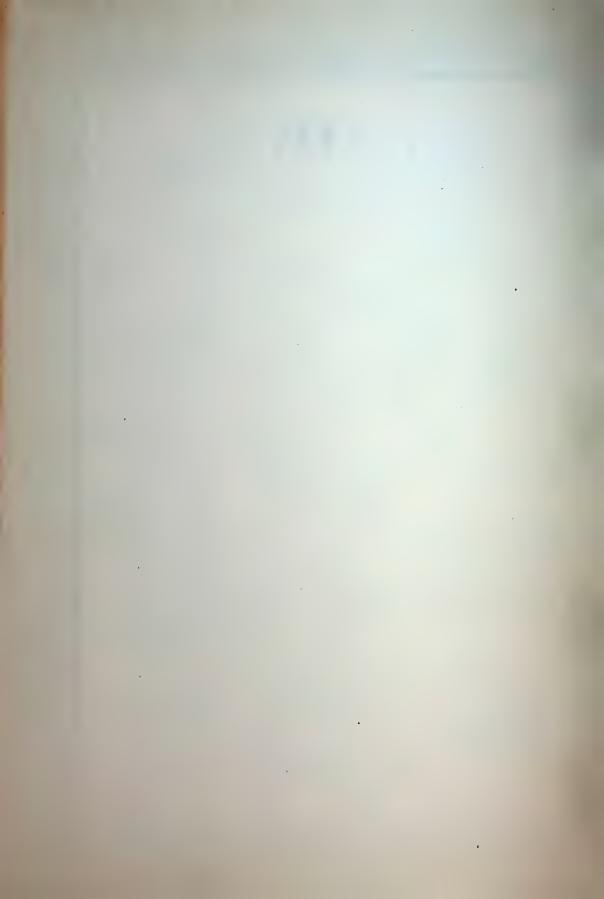

K.A.-Three seats?
F.W.-One each for your Dad, your Mom and your kid brother.

Miss SweckerBetty Lou, where are the Kings of England crowned?
Betty LouOn their heads.

Wiss Swecker"Alma, what does VJ stand for?
Alma-Van Johnson.

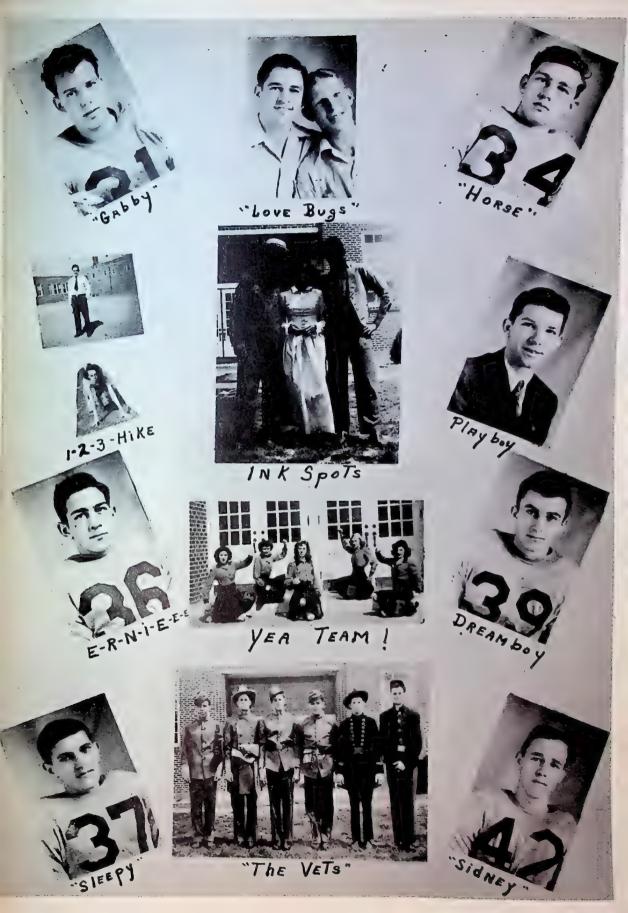

Lynn-"I suppose I'm only a little pebble on the beach of your life."

Violet-"You might stand a chance if you were a little boulder."
